

'Australian Government is not the Commonwealth of Australia'

Australian Government is a Corporation of pretend laws

Impersonating a Commonwealth Officer is a crime punishable of up to 2 years in jail yet every public servant does it.

Commonwealth of Australia is registered as a Company in Washington DC, and our taxes go to the shareholders in USA

Is this your idea of "Government"..?

Can you believe there is a company registered in Washington DC called the Commonwealth of Australia?

(See Empire of the City video for more about the significance of Washington DC.)

What if today's Governor-General did not take the Oath of Allegiance in the prescribed form as instructed under the Royal Sign Manual & Signet in 1900?

Diagram 3f - Governor-General's Oath of Office

Did today's Governor-General take the Oath of Office in the prescribed form as instructed under the Royal Sign Manual & Signet in 1900?

If yes, there must be evidence, such as LETTERS PATENT were revoked & replaced by the Queen (or her heirs and successors) under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom.

How valid is today's Governor General without Proof of Claim?

Diagram 7a - Constituting the Office of Governor - WA

Stated in LETTERS PATENT passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, constituting the Office of Governor of the State of Western Australia, ...it has become necessary to make permanent provision for the Office of Governor in and over Our State of Western Australia and its Dependencies, in the Commonwealth of Australia.

Has that permanency been revoked & replaced by the Queen (or her heirs and successors) under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom?

What is today's status of the Office of Governor?

Diagram 7b - Great Seal of the Commonwealth

Whereas LETTERS PATENT passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, constituting the Office of Governor of the State of Western Australia and its Dependencies ... require ...that appointments to the said Office shall be made by Commission under Our Sign Manual and Signet, then unless LETTERS PATENT were revoked & replaced by the Queen (or her heirs and successors) under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom two questions arise.

Is the appointment of today's Governor of the State of Western Australia made by Commission under the Sign Manual & Signet of the United Kingdom, Great Britain & Ireland.

What consequence arises?

LETTERS PATENT are revoked & replaced by the Queen (diagram 6) under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom.

Have any LETTERS PATENT been revoked by the Queen under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom

Do LETTERS PATENT from Queen Victoria dated 29 Oct 1900 remain valid?

Residents of Western Australia should know the answer to this question!

Diagram 15b - Revocation of Letters Patent - WA

Additional to Diagram 15a . from the LETTERS PATENT ... And We do hereby reserve to Ourselves, Our heirs and successors, full power and authority from time to time to revoke, alter, or amend these Our Letters Patent as to Us or them shall seem meet.

What does "Reserve to ourselves, Our heirs and successors" mean?

Does it mean "or successors"?

Does it mean LETTERS PATENT are revoked & replaced by the Queen under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, ever mindful of which Queen per Diagram 6?

Does it mean LETTERS PATENT from Queen Victoria dated 29 Oct 1900 remain valid?

Residents of Western Australian need to learn the truth now!

Diagram 16a - Great Seal of the Commonwealth

Is today's Great Seal named the Great Seal of the Commonwealth of Australia as in 1900, as in....

There shall be a Great Seal of and for Our said Commonwealth which Our said Governor-General shall keep and use for sealing all things whatsoever that shall pass the said Great Seal.

Provided that until a Great Seal shall be provided, the Private Seal of Our said Governor General may be used as the Great Seal of the Commonwealth of Australia?

Noting pre-requisite validation from diagrams 1,3 & 6, what seal is used on today's Commonwealth of Australia documents or Instruments?

Diagram 16b - Great Seal of the Commonwealth

Whereas An Act to constitute the Commonwealth of Australia 1900 (UK) [63 & 64 Vict.] [Ch. 12] provided the Great Seal Of the Commonwealth, what significance can be attached to the use of any other seal?

Oh, and by the way, why does a copyright symbol keep popping up on "government" documents. Is Government public or private?

Diagram 17 - Enacting Manner & Form of Acts

"Be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, the Senate and The House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Australia as follows .." is a clear statement.

Thus created, was the constitution changed by referendum or not?

Otherwise, Is today's High Court of Australia created by the Parliament of the Commonwealth and what is its validity?

(Diagram 1 validates which Commonwealth. Diagram 5 validates which Parliament.)

Diagram 10 - Courts of the Commonwealth

"The judicial power of the Commonwealth shall be vested in a Federal Supreme Court, to be called the High Court of Australia, and in and such other federal courts as the Parliament creates, and in such other courts as it invests with federal jurisdiction."

Are today's courts created by the Parliament of the Commonwealth or not? Are today's courts valid or not?

Diagram 11 - Justices of the Commonwealth

From the Act to constitute the Commonwealth of Australia 1900 (UK) [63 & 64 Vict.] [Ch. 12] ... the Justices of the High Court and of the other courts created by the Parliament (i.) Shall be appointed by the Governor-General in Council.

Thus established, are today's Justices valid or not? (Remember Diagram 5 validates which Parliament)

Diagram 12 - Juries of the Commonwealth

Is Trial without Jury Valid, given an Act to constitute the Commonwealth of Australia 1900 (UK) [63 & 64 Vict.] [Ch. 12] which states ...

The trial on indictment of any offence against any law of the Commonwealth shall be by jury, and every such trial shall be held in the State where the offence was committed, and if the offence was not committed within any State the trial shall ' be held at such place or places as the Parliament prescribes?

Will trial for any offense against laws of the Commonwealth be by Jury ?
(See diagrams 1 & 5 also)

Diagram 13b - Justices / Commissioners / Officers - WA

In LETTERS PATENT passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, constituting the Office of Governor of the State of Western Australia and its Dependencies, in the Commonwealth of Australia, dated 29 Oct 1900 ... the Governor may constitute and appoint, in Our name and on Our behalf, all such Judges, Commissioners, Justices of the Peace, and other necessary Offices and Ministers in the State, as may be lawfully constituted or appointed by Us.

What might you conclude had a Judge, Commissioner, Justice of the Peace, or other necessary Officers and Ministers of the State been otherwise appointed? (see diagram 13a also - Executive Government)

Diagram 13c - Justices / Commissioners / Officers

From the Constitution (as for diagram 11 above) ... The Governor-General may constitute and appoint, in Our name and on Our behalf, all such Judges, Commissioners, Justices of the Peace, and other necessary Offices and Ministers of Our said Commonwealth, as may be lawfully constituted or appointed by Us.

If not so appointed today, and without revocation or replacement of LETTERS PATENT, or any other verifiable evidence, what status is accorded today's Judges, Commissioners, Justices of the Peace, other necessary Offices and Ministers?

Shouldn't you enquire?

COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA

Washington DC, USA, CIK

Why is There a Commonwealth of Australia Registered in Washington DC?

Would you be surprised to find a company with the same name as your country registered with the Security and Exchange Commission (SEC) in Washington DC?

Well, guess what?!

Among those listed as corporate entities by the United States SEC are:

Israel, Turkey, Italy, Hungary, Sweden, Finland, Argentina, Colombia, Brazil, The Philippines, South Korea, Japan, Jamaica, South Africa, Canada, Australia... and my personal favourite (and I quote) "Her Majesty the Queen in Right of the Province of Alberta as represented by Alberta Investment Management Corp."

Interesting!

So what could all this mean?

For the purpose of this article we will follow the example of Australia.

Australia.... the lucky country?

- SEC Entity Name: COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA
- SEC Central Index Key (CIK): 0000805157
- SEC Standard Industrial Code (SIC): 8880 (UNKNOWN)
- SEC Business Address: 1601 MASSACHUSETTS AVE
NW WASHINGTON DC 20036
- Fiscal Year End: 0630

Well, that certainly raises some questions!

The 'COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA' is registered as a corporate entity with the United States SEC

Why is a company called 'COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA' registered in Washington DC?

What reason could there be for a country to be registered as a company?

By definition, aren't corporate and government entities mutually exclusive?

And doesn't government regulate companies?

Why would Australia be registered with the SEC in the United States?

And why would it provide a 'Prospectus' and annual 'Economic and Fiscal Outlook' documents to the SEC? And be subject to SEC regulation?

Why is the Great Seal of Australia a trademark registered with United States Patent and Trademark Office?

Could the 'Australian Government' be a corporate entity masquerading as real government, for profit, and not for the purpose of governance?

Does the 'Australian Government' truly represent "the people" and not shareholders in another country?

Why do today's government departments have corporate mission statements like "we provide services on BEHALF of government" and "our CLIENTS include government..."?

What happened to "we ARE government"??

Does this suggest they are NOT true government, but a company masquerading as government?

If a company registered in Washington DC is falsely claiming government status in Australia, what happened to the real (de jure) government with a similar name?

And when?

And are the laws in Australia therefore just rules for employees and contractors of the corporation?

Interesting.

Let's look a little closer...

Perhaps it is a requirement that the Commonwealth of Australia registers as a company entity in order to trade with the United States of America.

Are all the other countries who trade with the United States also registered on the American SEC?

Is 'the United States of America' also registered with ASIC, the Australian Securities & Investments Commission?

And is Australia similarly registered with the corresponding trade regulators in other countries?

The answer appears to be NO.

International trade implies mutual agreement reciprocity a common method of exchange.

But the reality is that the 'COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA' is registered as a corporate entity with the United States SEC, but not the other way around.

There appear to be no comparable corporate entities registered in other countries with which Australia trades.

And nations ranking among the United States' biggest trading partners do NOT have corporate avatars registered with the American SEC.

Perhaps registration in Washington DC is for the purpose of trading Government Bonds.

Interesting...

... But this strange corporate entity is only half the story.

Before government bonds can even exist, surely there must first be a legitimate government.

Government and the role of Governor-General in Australia

In Australia, the Governor-General is the representative of the Monarch (currently Queen Elizabeth II) and the Administrator of Government.

Given that the Governor-General administers government in Australia, government can only exist in Australia with a valid Governor-General.

The Governor-General is reliant upon the existence of the 'Office of Governor-General', which was originally constituted by the late Queen Victoria in Letters Patent dated 29th October 1900, passed under the Monarch's seal – the Great Seal Of The United Kingdom (view Letters Patent 1900).

The power and authority to revoke, alter or amend those Letters Patent was reserved by the late Queen Victoria to her heirs and successors.

Given those Letters Patent were issued under the 'Great Seal of the United Kingdom', surely any revocation, alteration or amendment must be issued by an heir and successor under the same Seal.

So what's the problem?

In 1984, Letters Patent supposedly revoked the original Letters Patent of 1900 and provided new provisions for the Office of Governor-General (view Letters Patent 1984).

This happened under the 'Great Seal of Australia', which we already know is a corporate trademark registered with the United States Patent & Trademark Office in the U.S. (view registration)

Surely such an attempt at revocation cannot therefore be lawful?

And if not, what Office is the Governor-General in Australia presently occupying?

Is the person we call "Governor-General" truly a representative of an "heir and successor" to the late Queen Victoria?

The answer appears to be NO.

Given that the Governor-General appoints Ministers, Judges, Commissioners and Justices of the Peace, and ascribes Royal Assent as the Monarch's representative in Australia – using the Monarch's Seal – in the absence of a valid Governor-General, are there any legitimate government offices in Australia?

Again... the answer appears to be NO.

So let's test the theory...

A case study

Wake Up World – Scott Bartle documented his recent dealings with 'Australian Customs & Border Protection Service' in his self-funded documentary "What The FUQ? – Frequently Unanswered Questions of the Australian Government".

This simple, concise and sometimes hilarious case-study follows Scott's ongoing interactions with a supposed "Government" entity that simply does not behave as a genuine government agency should.

And all he did was ask them to demonstrate their validity!

So... IS the "Australian Government" the same government the original Office of Governor-General was intended to Administer?

It's a question that officials at all levels of "Australian Government" have seem unwilling or unable to answer.

Some readers may think anyone a crack-pot for even asking the question.

"Break out the tin-foil hats!"

They'll cry!

But please... Before you form an opinion on this article, ask the Australian Government the same question yourself

Queen Victoria

Can you please demonstrate that today's Office of Governor-General is the same Office that was constituted by the late Queen Victoria in Letters Patent of 1900?

It is your right, after all.

And there are certainly some details that don't add up.

But it gets better....

That's odd, they certainly don't ACT like a true government.

At first "Government" may just ignore you.

But since anyone claiming government status has a responsibility to prove it, their silence is very indicative, don't you think?

So push your Government a little further, and see what happens when you really start to question who's who.

Taxes & fines are suddenly waived, and miraculously, licenses & permits are no longer required!

And it doesn't stop there.

Does this sound like the behaviour of legitimate government?

NO, it does not.

If challenged, does a legitimate government not simply demonstrate its validity and continue to act within its lawful authority?

Or does legitimate government exempt that person's responsibilities and wave them through the gates, quickly, quietly and with a minimum of fuss? "Nothing to see here!"

Is this situation unique to Australia?

Let's find out!

So what the FUQ do we do next?

Written enquiries made to Ministers and Government agencies, to the Office of the Prime Minister and to the Office of Governor General remain unanswered.

So in the absence of a response from Government, a possibility might be escalating this matter to the current Monarch, Her Majesty, The Queen.

Surely Her Majesty must know the answer why a corporation in the United States bears the name 'COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA' why in 1984 her authority to amend the provisions for the Office of Governor-General was granted on a company letterhead why those claiming to represent true government in Australia have been unable to prove that status and why some, when challenged, may suddenly overlook one's obligations and run silently in the other direction.
